INSPIRING THE NEXT GENERATION

For the second year in a row, Asia Society will honor the dreamers and leaders of our world making a positive impact on the future of Asia. These inspiring men and women represent the spectrum of achievement – those who have led from positions of power, as well as those who have done so from ground-level laboratories of innovation.

Last year's Asia Game Changer honorees included Alibaba CEO Jack Ma and the icon of girls' rights Malala Yousafzai. As U.N. Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon said at the event, "From e-commerce to the environment, from the arts to academia, from the sciences to social development, we see Asians helping Asians and building a better world. This is what the Asia Society and its Game Changer Awards are all about."

The theme this year is "Dare to be Inspired" and you are encouraged to fill your tables with your children, grandchildren, your firm's young associates, or colleagues who will be inspired by these remarkable leaders. The 2015 Asia Game Changer Awards and Dinner will be a night to remember!
