Session 3: The Two Asias

Venue: Grand Ballroom, Lobby Level, InterContinental Hotel

While much is made of the unprecedented economic growth in Asia over the last 30 years, the fact remains that two-thirds of the world's hungry and poor live in Asia. This session seeks to address this dichotomy by asking:

- What strategies can help us foster more equitable growth across the Asia Pacific region and help move even greater numbers of people out of hunger and poverty?
- What specific examples of successful and sustainable efforts are being implemented in the region?
- In this context, how can countries in the region work together to achieve One Asia?
