

SAVE THE DATE – JANUARY 18, 2019

Immersion Teacher Workshop

Full Day Teacher-led Immersion Labs at Washington Yu Ying PCS, Washington DC

- Observe immersion classrooms
- Q&A with experienced immersion teachers
- Connect with other immersion teachers for professional exchanges
- Learn how to plan lessons, gather resources, and implement them with effective instructional strategies
- Engage in performance-based assessments

Chinese Immersion Innovation Labs (CHIL)

– Pre-select the topic that interests you and

1. Observe small group lessons on selected topics such as:
  - Play-based learning (Pk-k)
  - Interactive read aloud (Pk-2)
  - Teaching math through hands-on activities (Pk-2)
  - Guided reading (G3-5)
  - Shared writing
  - Daily problem-solving math skills (G3-5)
  - Summative assessments
  - Oral language assessment tool
2. Unpack how the lesson was planned and taught
3. Develop your own lesson; share and revise

Sample Schedule

- Registration - Breakfast 8:30-9:00
- Opening remarks/activity 9:00-9:30
- Classroom observations 9:30-10:45
- Break 10:45-11:00
- Q&A session from the morning observations 11:00-11:45
- Networking lunch 11:45-12:45
- Resource sharing 12:45-1:10
- Innovation Labs 1:15-3:15
- Sharing out and reflections 3:15-3:45

Registration fee: $65.00
Continental breakfast and lunch included

This workshop is brought to you by Washington Yuying and Chinese Early Language and Immersion Network (CELIN) at Asia Society.

For more information, email iil@washingtoneying.org.
www.washingtoneying.org

