

Asia Society Intern Opportunity

Location: New York

Department: Global Initiatives

Period of Internship: Spring 2015

Announcement:

Asia Society, a leading non-profit cultural and educational institution, seeks a talented intern to assist the Global Initiatives team facilitating their globally oriented and cross-departmental programming. The ideal candidate for this internship will have a keen interest in Asia; be a student or recent graduate; and have an interest in gaining experience working in an international organization and helping to plan and execute superb high profile conferences and public programs. The intern should be available to come to Asia Society between 20-30 hours/week for 4-6 months starting in early January.

The intern will receive training and hands-on experience in the following areas: Tracking and researching current developments in Asia; providing conference/event coordinating support, including handling online registration and pulling various registration reports; assisting in foundation research to help identify funding prospects; assisting with administrative and logistical duties related to all of the Global Initiatives team's areas of work; and assisting with Asia Society events after-hours as needed (2-3 times per month).

The main initiatives and projects interns will focus on include but are not limited to:

- Asia 21 Young Leaders Initiative
- 2015 Asia Game Changers
- High-level international conferences composing the Rise of Asia series, culminating in the Asia Thought Leaders Annual Summit (ATLAS)

Education /prior experience most suited for this internship:

- Current student or recent graduate
- Demonstrated strong interest in Asia; knowledge of an Asian language a plus but not required
