

Asia Society Intern Opportunity

Location: New York

Position: Asia Society Technical Web Intern

Posted: 9/05/2013

Description:

Asia Society, a prestigious non-profit institution that is the leading force in forging closer ties between Asia and the West through arts, education, policy and business outreach, is looking for a Technical Web Intern to assist in web development of its Drupal-managed CMS. The ideal candidate would be a tech-savvy student with experience in web development and strategy. (Please note: internship is unpaid.)

Responsibilities:

The Technical Web Intern should be a student with a focus in computer science or web development. While previous experience with Drupal is not required, theming experience in another CMS, such as Wordpress, is important and candidates will be expected to learn and configure Drupal. The position could also call for front-end web development, competitive analysis, working with design files (using Photoshop or Illustrator) and quality assurance. Candidates should be prepared to learn and implement new libraries, software and APIs. Candidate should have a working knowledge of HTML, CSS and Javascript (jQuery). Knowledge of PHP is a plus.

We foster an open and collaborative environment where you will learn and contribute to approaches in digital strategy for our global, influential non-profit organization.

Requirements:

- Working knowledge of HTML, CSS and JavaScript (jQuery)
- Some CMS theming experience (preferably Wordpress or Drupal)
- Experience with Photoshop or Illustrator
- Knowledge of PHP a plus
