

Li Lu
Founder & Chairman
Himalaya Capital Investors, LP

Li Lu is Chairman of Himalaya Capital Management, which he founded in 1997. Himalaya manages an investment fund that's primarily focused on long-term opportunities in Asia and the U.S. Born in China, Mr. Li attended Nanjing University, where he majored in semi-conductor physics and economics. He then studied at Columbia University, earning a B.A. in Economics, a J.D. and an M.B.A. Mr. Li received Columbia's John Jay Award for distinguished professional achievement in 2012, and was named a Global Leader for Tomorrow by the World Economic Forum in 2001 and a Henry Crown Fellow by the Aspen Institute in 1998. He also received the Raoul Wallenberg Human Rights Award from the Congressional Human Rights Foundation and the Reebok Human Rights Award. Mr. Li is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, Young Presidents Organization, Pacific Council for International Relations and Committee of 100, and he serves on the boards of various companies and nonprofit organizations.