Local Arts News: 4 must-see free exhibitions that coincide with Art Basel Hong Kong 2016 - South China Morning Post (2016-03-18)

Call it Art Basel razzle dazzle. When Asia's biggest contemporary art fair opens – it runs from March 24 to 26 at the Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre – martinis will sprout elaborate decorations and shopping centres will pop with art. To navigate the maelstrom of cultural offerings, we've sifted through all of next week's art openings and picked a few must-sees that are curated with conviction and free to see.

1. Duilian, Spring Workshop
2. Social Fabric: New Works by Mariana Hahn and Kwan Sheung-chi, MILL6 pop-up space
3. Afterwork, Para Site
4. Digging a Hole in China, OCAT Shenzhen

There are a number of other great shows on, including the M+ Sigg Collection Exhibition at Artistree in Quarry Bay, which is not included here because it opened in February, Hack Space at the K11 Art Foundation's pop-up space in Sheung Wan, and "Apparatus of Power", Shahzia Sikander's solo exhibition at the Asia Society. Please check scmp.com/topics/art-basel-2016 for the latest from Hong Kong art week.
