

Asia Society Intern Opportunity

Location: New York

Department: Global Initiatives – Business Programs

Period of Internship: Summer 2017

Announcement:

Asia Society, a leading non-profit cultural and educational institution, seeks a talented intern for the Global Initiatives team and their business programming. The ideal candidate for this internship will have a keen interest in Asia in the areas of business, economics and international affairs; be a student or recent graduate; and have an interest in gaining experience in an international organization. The intern should be available to come to Asia Society between 20-30 hours/week for 3-4 months, starting immediately.

The intern will receive training and hands-on experience in the following areas: Researching business trends involving the Asia-Pacific; assisting in program development for public programs on business, with emphasis on research and gathering information in support of concept papers written by program officers and other staff members; assembling news briefings on business trends and current events from major outlets from key countries in Asia; learning about other areas of the Global Initiatives team's areas of work; and in the planning of events after-hours as needed (2-3 times per month).

Please note that this internship opportunity is on a voluntary-basis (unpaid).

Education and prior experience most suited for this internship:

Current student or recent graduate; demonstrated strong interest in Asia; knowledge of an Asian language a plus but not required; interest in and understanding of global business concepts, international trade, geopolitics, etc.; strong computer skills, including experience with Microsoft Office suite, cloud computing, web content management, and social media; strong writing skills and attention to detail; ability to perform under pressure/time constraints; ability to maintain composure and exercise good judgment in public; good organization skills and ability to work independently; native or proficient English speaking and writing.
