colgin

Wine and Art Tour at Napa Valley's Colgin Cellars

A rare behind-the-scenes visit for six people to Colgin Cellars, the acclaimed winery founded by Ann Colgin. Set high on a mountaintop overlooking Lake Hennessey, this private, state-of-the-art facility features classical design coupled with contemporary technology. Exceptional works of art referencing winemaking through the ages are displayed throughout the Estate. These pieces are a reflection of Ann Colgin's background in the arts and the winery's celebrated aesthetic. The majestic views and exquisite wines will create a lasting impression, and the winning bidder will take home a beautifully etched and numbered magnum of the 2005 "IX Estate" Red Wine.

Please make request at least 8 weeks in advance of desired date. Dates must be mutually agreed upon, Monday-Friday. All guests must be 21 years of age or older.*
