

Asia Society Intern Opportunity

Location: Asia Society, 500 Washington Street, San Francisco

Department: Development

Period of Internship: Spring-Summer 2017

Announcement:

The Asia Society's Northern California center is seeking interns with an interest in Asia and Asian American issues and culture to work with our Development team on external engagement activities and public events. This is an exciting opportunity for selected interns to gain hands-on experience in digital marketing, event management, and fundraising while learning about social, political, and cultural issues in contemporary Asia.

The Development team staff will instruct the interns in all aspects of external engagement activities from marketing research and strategic communications (develop original content for the Asia Society website, blog, and social media sites), to event coordination support for our 14th Annual Dinner.

We are currently recruiting interns for Spring-Summer 2017. Internships are unpaid positions. Candidates are asked to commit to a minimum of 12 weeks and at least 16 hours a week; availability twice a month for events may be requested. For applicants not able to meet these conditions, we may have program-specific volunteer opportunities.

Education /prior experience most suited for this internship:

College juniors/seniors, recent graduates, and graduate students in Asian and Asian American studies, business, international affairs, journalism, history, political science or related fields preferred; strong interest in programming and Asian affairs; knowledge of or experience in working on a range of social, cultural, economic, and political issues related to Asia, U.S.-Asia relations, and Asian Americans; strong research, writing, and editing skills; skill and experience using social media as a marketing tool, with previous marketing and journalism experience a plus; proficiency using
