

Asia Society Intern Opportunity

Location: New York

Department: Global Initiatives – Business Programs

Period of Internship: Spring 2019

Announcement:

Asia Society, a leading non-profit cultural and educational institution, seeks a talented intern for the Global Initiatives team and their business programming. The ideal candidate for this internship will have a keen interest in Asia in the areas of business, economics and international affairs; be a student or recent graduate; and have an interest in gaining experience with an international organization. We would prefer the intern to come to Asia Society between 20-30 hours/week for 3-4 months, starting immediately. After-hours availability (2-3 times per month) required.

The intern will receive training and hands-on experience in the following areas:

- Researching business trends involving the Asia-Pacific.
- Program development for public programs on business, with emphasis on research and gathering information in support of concept papers written by program officers and other staff members.
- How to monitor news briefings on business trends and current events from major outlets from key countries in Asia.
- All of the inner workings of Global Initiatives;
- Event production and logistics

Please note that this internship opportunity is unpaid

Education and prior experience most suited for this internship:

Current student or recent graduate; demonstrated strong interest in Asia; knowledge of an Asian language a plus but not required; interest in and understanding of global business concepts, international trade, geopolitics, etc.; strong computer skills, including experience with Microsoft Office suite, cloud computing, web content management, and social media; strong writing skills and attention to detail; ability to perform under pressure/time constraints; ability to maintain composure and exercise good judgment in public; good organization skills and ability to work independently; native or proficient English speaking and writing.
