EXHIBITIONS

Axel Verwoerd Gallery
Wed-Sat, 11am-7pm, 21/F, Coda
Designer Centre 62, Wong Chuk Hai Road (entrance via Yip Fat Street, Wong Chuk Hang
Inquiries: 2837 0904

The Silent Balance
Raimund Girke's monochrome paintings, created in the last two decades, feature white as a recurring motif that magnifies greys and blacks. Ends Sep 29

Chantal Miller Gallery
Tue-Sun, 11am-6pm, Asia Society, 9 Justice Dr, Admiralty.
Inquiries: 2121 2151

To see the Forest and the Trees Local and overseas artists, including Vesela Kostov, South Ho and Frank Tang, have teamed up for this exhibition inspired by the urgent forestry and environmental issues in Hong Kong. Ends Sep 29

Centre for Heritage Arts & Textile Mon-Wed, Sun 11am-7pm, The Hall, The Mills, 45 Pak Tin Par St,
To Kwa Wan. Inquiries: 2973 2201

Gathering Delights
N.S. Hush showcases more than 20 works, spanning roughly 20 years, featuring paintings and sculptures, and highlighted by his collaboration with farmers from Kau-C-A-Dawma Organic Farm, which explores the ways that nature stimulates art.
Opening reception Jul 27, 4pm-7pm.
Ends Nov 3

David Zwirner
Tue-Sat, 11am-7pm, 5/F-6/F, H Queen's Rd Central. Inquiries: 2189 0000

Singing the Body Electric Group show exploring themes such as body and desire by artists including lan H-Hong, Wolfgang Tillmans and Liu Xiaokang.
The name of the exhibition comes from Walt Whitman's poem 'Sing the Body Electric' from his 'Leaves of Grass' poetry collection. Ends Aug 10

Galerie Ora-Ora
Mon-Fri, 10am-7pm; Sat, 11am-7pm, 17/F, H Queen's Rd Central.
Inquiries: 2815 1171

Infinity
Nina Pryde displays her abstract landscape paintings, primarily made of ink, which draw from items such as expressionism and impressionism, as well as from her experiences as a multidisciplinary artist. Ends Aug 17

Hong Kong Space Museum Mon-Wed, Thu-Sat, 1pm-9pm, Sat and Sun, 10am-6pm, 10 Salisbury Rd, TST. Inquiries: 2369 9999

Hall of the Cosmos and Space Exploration
The halls reopen after two years of renovations, with 1,000 sq m of space and exhibits.

KCDIO Art Space Mon-Sat, 9am-7pm (closed public holidays), KCDIO 100, 100 Kwai Chung Road, Kwai Chung. Inquiries: 2110 0550

Lucie Chang Fine Arts
Daily, 11am-7pm, 20 Tai Ping Shan
St, Sheung Wan. Inquiries: 2546 8128

Lived Dream
Joint show of three female artists exhibiting their work at the Queen's Rd Central.
Inquiries: 2905 5050

Kobo Hiroshi: Recent Works Viewing the sculpture of virtual physical space and the relationship to natural and artificial.
Works examines how smaller parts come together to form dynamic structures. Ends Aug 29

MGM Theatre
Mon-Sat, 2pm-7pm, 23/F, H Queen's Rd Central. Inquiries: 2368 6880

Quest for the Dark Yung Yongbing's reinterprets Chinese ink with an immersive, large-scale, multichannel, 4K video work in ultra-detailed urban architecture and vast mountains, and projected onto the panoramic screen of the MGM Theatre. Ends Aug 3

Pace Gallery Tue-Sat, 11am-7pm (closed public holidays), 12/F, H Queen's Rd Central. Inquiries: 2905 5050

Kubo Hiroshi: Recent Works
The artist looks at the perception of virtual and physical space and the relationship between nature and artifice. Works examines how smaller parts come together to form dynamic structures. Ends Aug 29

Para Site Wed-Sun, noon-7pm (closed public holidays), 2/F, Wing Fung Industrial Bldg, 677 King's Rd.
Inquiries: 2834 6666

Quarry Bay. Inquiries: 2137 0209

This exhibition, curated by the Tai Kwan Heritage Department, shows 101 objects that are representative of the work and life at the Central Police Station compound, before it was transformed into a hub for arts and culture. Ends Sep 22

Tai Kwun
Daily, 11am-8pm, Duplex Studio, Block 1, 10 Hollywood Rd, Central.
Inquiries: 3559 2800

This exhibition, curated by the Tai Kwun Heritage Department,
shows 101 objects that are
representative of the work and
life at the Central Police Station
compound, before it was
transformed into a hub for arts
and culture. Ends Sep 22

Tai Kwun Contemporary Mon-Thur, Sat, Sun, 10am-7pm; Fri, 10am-8pm; Tai Kwun, 10 Hollywood Rd, Central.
Inquiries: 3559 2800

This exhibition, curated by the
Tai Kwun Heritage Department,
shows 101 objects that are
representative of the work and
life at the Central Police Station
compound, before it was
transformed into a hub for arts
and culture. Ends Sep 22

Whitecote Gallery
Tue-Sat, 11am-7pm, 3/F, H
Queen's Rd Central. Inquiries: 2528 8001

Mark Gielgo British artist Mark Gielgo makes his solo Hong Kong debut with a series of new paintings, drawings and prints inspired by a wide range of cultural influences, including 1960s and 70s graphic design, post-war psychology books and mid-century American paintings.
Ends Aug 24

Widestone Gallery
Tue-Sat, 11am-7pm, 3/F, H
Queen's Rd Central. Inquiries: 2528 8001

Body and Sense Joint show focusing on the theme of the body and sensory perceptions, by both artists, Akihiko Kudo and Spencerian painter Fabio Modica. On display are works on wood in media created with a special emphasis on the emotioanl response. Ends Aug 4

Tenzing Norgay's ink-and-coloured pencil-on-paper piece 'The Vase' is among the works on display at the 'Dialogue' exhibition at Rossi & Rossi in Wong Chuk Hang.