

Shalom Hong Kong

The Hong Kong Jewish Film Festival showcases the best Jewish films from the recent past, highlighting the nuances of Jewish culture and its evolution over the years. The festival opens with Tel Aviv on Fire (picture), an insightful comedy-drama examining the relationships between Israelis and Palestinians. Other gems include Fiddler: A Miracle of Miracles — a documentary about how the American musical, Fiddler on the Roof, came into existence — and Bye Bye Germany, a comedic tale of a Holocaust survivor trying to make his way to America.
