

The wonders of Jewish cinema

The upcoming Hong Kong Jewish Film Festival offers cinephiles a range of genres, from family stories to a glimpse of old Cairo.

With a program offering over 20 feature films, comedies, and documentaries from countries like Israel, Russia, and Ethiopia, the festival is an exciting opportunity to discover Jewish culture, politics, and history.

When: November 2 to 10

Where: Asia Society Hong Kong Center, Admiralty