Navigating Shared Futures
Mission: To prepare Australians for deeper and sustainable engagement with a more complex Asia

Asia Society Australia is Australia’s leading global think-tank and membership organisation dedicated to Asia, focusing on the interplay between business and policy.

We connect business, policy and society, helping Australians understand and engage with Asia, and to navigate our shared futures. We are a national, independent, non-partisan, and non-political institution. Our programs and analysis are accessible across Australia and globally through digital and face-to-face platforms. Asia Society Australia is a centre of Asia Society – a preeminent global non-profit organisation dedicated to Asia, founded in 1956 by John D. Rockefeller 3rd in New York, with 16 centres in Asia, the United States, Australia and Europe.

Goals:

1. Be the leading voice in Australia about Asia’s business, politics and society, and to be a leading voice about Australia in Asia.
2. Be a truly national institution and a digital-first organisation.
3. Be a leading contributor to solving Australia’s national policy challenges in Asia.
4. Be a champion and a convenor of informed debate and dialogue.

Our Focus:

We focus on the major challenges and opportunities that are facing Australia and Asia.

Strategic Priorities:

1. Complex Asia:
   Build a deeper understanding of geopolitical, economic and strategic forces shaping Australia’s future in Asia.

2. Trade Smarter:
   Inform Australia’s trade and investment expansion and innovation in the region.

3. Living with China:
   Contribute to shaping the next chapter of Australia’s engagement with China.

4. Generation Asia:
   Empower the next generation of Asia-engaged leaders for the post-pandemic era.
