Join Asia Society global patrons for an exclusive bespoke art and culture experience in New York, June 1–5, 2020. Each day will be comprised of private collection viewings and behind the scenes meetings with experts in their fields. This journey celebrates the launch of the inaugural Triennial of Asia, a festival of art, ideas, and innovation, hosted by Asia Society Museum in New York. This first edition of the Triennial, themed ‘We Do Not Dream Alone’, will be composed of a multi-venue exhibition, policy discussions, forums, and performances. The festival will bring together around forty artists with scientists, historians, policy analysts, and thought leaders from countries spanning Asia, Australia, the Middle East, Europe, and the Americas.

HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

• Private visits to the homes of top private collectors on Park Avenue, Fifth Avenue, and TriBeCa
• Behind the scenes visit and private tour of the MET Museum, MET Breur, MoMA, Whitney Museum of American Art, Guggenheim Museum
• Day at Kykuit, The Rockefeller Estate, a historic house museum in the Pocantico Hills
• Top Fine Dining at NYC’s best restaurants
• Spend an afternoon with artists at their ateliers

*Adventures in Art has a block of rooms reserved at a top upper east side hotel and can book the rooms as requested.

Images, left to right: Asia Society New York; New York city skyline; Art collectors home; TAK Room at Hudson Yards; Kykuit; Artist studio visit; Asian collection at the MET