

Asia Society Intern Opportunity

Location: New York
Department: AsiaStore
Period of Internship: Fall 2018

Announcement: AsiaStore Marketing and Merchandising Intern

AsiaStore is seeking a creative individual who is interested in a career in retail and fashion merchandising. As an AsiaStore Marketing and Merchandising Intern you will be exposed to all facets of AsiaStore's retail operations, including product management, merchandising, marketing campaigns, social media/online initiatives, and special sale event coordination. This unpaid internship allows an individual the opportunity to be both creative and analytical, while assisting with projects that are essential to AsiaStore's success.

Candidates are asked to commit to a minimum of 12 weeks.
Schedule is flexible.

Education and prior experience most suited for this internship:

Strong computer skills including Excel, Photoshop and/or Adobe Illustrator; skill with social media platforms; strong research, communication, and writing skills; self-starter and problem solver; excellent organizational skills; ability to multitask in a fast-paced, entrepreneurial environment; ability to assist in the implementation of merchandising and marketing initiatives.

Internship is non-paid, but academic credit can be offered.

How to Apply: Please mail or email your letter and resume indicating intern title to:
