What is Asia Society?

- > Founded by John D. Rockefeller 3rd in 1956 in New York to foster greater understanding and cultural exchange between Asia and the United States.
- > A world-renowned 501(c)(3) nonprofit nonpartisan organization, seeking to build a strong, collaborative relationship between Asia and the world through programming and activities across 16 regional centers: Delhi, Hong Kong, Houston, Los Angeles, Manila, Melbourne, Mumbai, New York, Paris, San Francisco, Seattle, Seoul, Sydney, Tokyo, Washington, D.C., and Zurich.
- > The leading go-to resource for learning about and engaging in issues pertaining to Asia across policy, arts and culture, education, sustainability, business, and technology.
- > Supports an extensive and active global network of professionals, influencers, and thought leaders who have an interest in or are located across Asia.
- > No other organization provides a comprehensive understanding of Asia across interrelated disciplines, and offers extensive, first-class content and programming – both in-person and digitally.

What is Asia Society?

- > To remain competitive and thrive in the global marketplace, successful companies must continuously monitor and gain knowledge about the multiple cultural, geopolitical, socio-economic, and regulatory environments across Asia, and how these areas impact each other

- > Asia Society provides an open and inclusive environment to help your company better understand and engage your employees, customers, and business partners located across Asia through:
 - Fresh, relevant, and innovative programming across arts and culture, business, education, policy, and technology.

 - Networking opportunities with senior-level business executives, U.S. and foreign-based public policy leaders, and influencers.

 - Connections to distinguished scholars and issue experts, who provide direct insight into those subjects of most interest to your company.

What is Asia Society?
